Let us chart your course to better meet the needs of your clients.

Our mission is to provide technical assistance, professional services, and educational trainings to government agencies and community-based organizations that desire to enhance their internal operations and strategic infrastructure.

Our services are designed to help our clients better meet the needs of their constituency and accomplish their mission.

The Taylor-Wilks Group (TWG) is a leading, non-profit consulting firm specializing in the provision of superior technical assistance, professional services and educational trainings. TWG will help you develop your plans and lead your organization to the next level.

Whether the organization is a non-profit, association, small business or government agency, we assist our clients in better meeting the needs of their constituents. Together, we create smart solutions for complex problems.

Our diverse and professional team bring together three decades of experience to successfully navigate you through the choppy waters associated with community-based organizational management, business development, evaluation, public health services delivery, fiscal management and program administration.

Founded in 2005, TWG has offices in Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Maryland. TWG serves Federal, state, and local governments as well as non-profit and community based businesses. Our highly skilled team of consulting professionals is committed to delivering expert training and on-site assistance in core operational areas.

“Every constituent you touch, every donation you secure, every expense you approve and every act of stewardship you undertake deserves to be a part of your guiding plan.”

WHY THE TAYLOR-WILKS GROUP?

Relying on yesterday's ideas, programs and assumptions can spell failure for any organization in today's climate of change -where pay for performance is mounting; grant funding is shrinking and the need to do more with less is paramount. Learn to innovate, motivate your team and create new opportunities for raising funds through our unique programs and services.

WHAT WE PROVIDE

TWG's functional areas include technical assistance, proposal writing, Board Governance, leadership development, conference planning and management, capacity building, trainings to improve operational efficiencies and trainings on the diversification of revenue sources. At TWG we consider all of these functions critical to the survival and evolution of organizations. We successfully assist our clients with meeting their objectives by providing impeccable service and leveraging our years of experience.

TWG is dedicated to ensuring the sustainability and advancement of organizations in an ever-changing economic and regulatory environment. TWG assists non-profits, associations, small businesses and governmental agencies in navigating today's tumultuous, evolving business paradigms by creating practical solutions that allow organizations to adapt, thrive and prosper.

OUR VISION

Our vision is to provide impeccable customer service along with innovative practical solutions that enhance our client's performance to make them leading edge providers.
